Wonders of the Sand
The Dairy Duchess
Bobby Bumps - Baseball Champion

TROUT FISHING IN DEVON

Unusually beautiful scenes of the charming English countryside and the famous trout streams of Devonshire. The fisherman and his young son whip the waters for the elusive speckled beauties. Just as they net several fine specimens, Mother, who has been preparing tea on the bank, calls to them. Tea over, they cast their flies on the rippling water that reflects the sunset's crimson glow.

WONDERS OF THE SAND

The sand that we so heedlessly spurn beneath our feet on the seashore is shown, with the aid of a powerful microscope, to be composed of glittering jewels. The perfection of their form is not visible to the naked eye but the lens reveals them as beautifully regular and colored by every hue in the rainbow.

THE DAIRY DUCHESS

Scenes of a modern dairy with the latest scientific equipment that show the humble cow is now lodged as luxuriously as a duchess. An electrical milking machine is shown in operation, as well as the machinery that pasteurizes and bottles the milk.

BOBBY BUMPS - BASEBALL CHAMPION. (Animated Cartoon by Earl Hurd.

This animated cartoon shows Bobby Bumps and his gang in a baseball game. The young gentleman who is umpiring gets into difficulties with the players and the angry fans and disappears from the diamond. Bobby gets dusky Dinah, the cook, to finish umpiring the game. Fans and players take exception to her rulings and rush for her but Dinah tosses them all over the fence for home runs. Bobby marks on the score-board: "Game Called - On Account of DARKNESS."
